NOW READY AT ALL BOOKSELLERS THE BEAUTIFUL

By BOOTH TARKINGTON. Author of MONSIEUR BEAUCAIRE

THEY say that lightning never strikes twice in the same place. But every rule has its exception, as is proved in the present instance, for there is no doubt that in "The Beautiful Lady," Mr. Tarkington's latest work, the lightning of genius has struck precisely where it struck in his famous earlier work, "Monsieur Beaucaire." There are few authors in the whole range of literature who have achieved two such perfect narrations, identical in spirit and fraught with the same exquisite grace and charm. The scene of the story is laid in modern Naples and

The publishers in making the book itself have tried to improve upon the attractiveness of Beaucaire, even. It is peculiarly appropriate as a gift book. There are seven illustrations by Blendon Campbell and the book is decorated throughout by William Jordan. Cloth 12mo. $1.25.
